

The 2009 Eaton Science Fiction Conference

Extraordinary Voyages: Jules Verne and Beyond

April 30-May 3

University of California, Riverside

Featuring Keynote Speeches by:

Marie-Hélène Huet, author of The History of the "Extraordinary Voyages"

Walter James Miller, founder of modern American Verne studies

John Rieder, author of Colonialism and the Emergence of Science Fiction

Invited Panel Discussions on:

The Emergence of Modern Science Fiction
Verne in Europe and the United States
Verne in Film

Steampunk after Verne
Translating and Collecting Verne

The Awarding of the Second Eaton Lifetime Achievement Award to

Frederik Pohl

author of The Space Merchants, Gateway, Man Plus, and other SF classics

The Annual Awards Ceremony of the Science Fiction Poetry Association

Tours of the J. Lloyd Eaton Collection

Call for Papers and other conference information at

<http://eatonconference.ucr.edu/>

The Science Fiction Studies symposium on
"The Histories of Science Fiction," with talks by
De Witt Douglas Kilgore,
Veronica Hollinger and
Roger Luckhurst

Attending Authors

Greg Bear
Greg Benford
Kathleen Goonan
Howard Hendrix
Tim Powers
Rudy Rucker
And more...

